A to Z Braille:
Uncontracted Braille for Reading Partners
University of Utah (SPED 5960)
1 credit hour

Have you always wanted to learn to read braille?
Do you wonder what the dots say inside of the elevator?

This class will teach you how to read and write alphabet (uncontracted) braille and braille numbers.

Monday, June 10th – Thursday, June 13th 2019
4:30 p.m.  – 7:30 p.m.

Locations: U of U Salt Lake Campus (Distance sites possible.  Note: Distance sites must be requested no later than May 1st, no exceptions.)

Instructor: Kate Borg, TVI

Course Fee: $60 (A limited number of Utah Braille Literacy Committee $100 stipends are available [$60 reimbursement for the course fee and $40 for the participant]. Contact Chris Bischke [chris.bischke@utah.edu] for more information.)

ALL Course materials and activities are included in the registration fee.

This 1-credit hour course has been specifically designed for

-Paraeducators
-Graduating High School Students interested in braille and/or a career in Special Education
-General Education Teachers
-Early Childhood Specialists
-Parents and Family Members of Children who read braille
-Community Members

Participants will learn the following skills:
-How to read and produce the braille alphabet
-How to read and produce braille numbers
-How to make children’s braille books and games

Register at:
https://continue.utah.edu/contracts/SPED6/1196

Registration must be completed prior to May 15th.